Call for Speakers: 2024 AZ Project Management Summit

We are looking for experienced speakers for this year's Arizona Project Management Summit on 10/18/2024 (virtual) and 10/19/2024 (in-person) at the ASU Memorial Union (Tempe campus). Our goal is to provide attendees with valuable insights and practical strategies that they can apply to their own projects and organizations.

If you are an experienced project manager, consultant, or subject matter expert, and you have a passion for sharing your knowledge and expertise, we encourage you to apply to become a speaker at the 2024 Arizona Project Management Summit. We are seeking presentations on topics such as:

- the future of project management,
- leadership and team dynamics,
- agile and adaptive methodologies,
- risk management and resilience,
- digital transformation and innovation,
- stakeholder engagement and communication,
- industry-specific challenges and solutions,
- ethics and professional responsibility,
- career development and professional growth,
- transition from teammate to team lead or project manager,
- change management,
- case studies and success stories,
- future trends in construction management,
- mental health, work-life balance, and wellness,
- time-difference work culture,
- data security,
- transitioning from industries,
- sustainability and green project management, etc.

This is an excellent opportunity to expand your network, enhance your professional reputation, and give back to the project management community. To apply, please submit an application by July 31, 2024.

Questions? Please contact Ravina Mukadam rmukadam@asu.edu.
